“In the Word of God the curtain is drawn aside, and we behold, behind, above, and through all the play and counterplay of human interests and power and passions, the agencies of the all-merciful One, silently, patiently working out the counsels of His own will”

New Web Site Is Born

The Review and Herald is pleased to introduce a new Web site related to six new tracts by Randy Fishell, Guide editor. These unique tracts employ much less copy than other tracts and are specifically geared for the general adult market. The format is meant to introduce a Seventh-day Adventist fundamental belief and create a desire for further study. Because of the brevity of these tracts, Randy felt the need for follow-up material and wrote additional copy. David Haluska drew up a concept and handed the bundle to Alejandra

Rodriguez, who created the new Web site, <http://www.TruthUnfolded.com>. Each tract points people to this site for more study resources and information. It is a simple site, but it's great for outreach. Visitors are able to buy the tracts, read more about each subject, buy books on those subjects, start free Bible studies, or ask Bible questions.

Check it out and let David Haluska know if you think something is missing or if you have a suggestion for other products to be featured.

Bowlers and Sponsors Wanted

The annual bowling fundraiser to benefit Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Washington County will be held at Turner Lanes on the Dual Highway on Sunday, April 6, at 11:00 a.m. Teams are now forming in each division. If you are interested in bowling, sponsoring a coworker, or donating a prize, please contact Dave Griffiths at ext. 4065.

Health and Nutrition Seminar

Vegetarian's Pursuit Café will sponsor a Health and Nutrition Seminar here at the Review during the weeks of April 7 and April 14, 2008. The seminar will be held on Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday of each week, for a total of six classes, and will cover many interesting topics regarding the foods that we eat and how they affect our health. Look for more information to come later about how to register to participate in this program. Be sure to invite your friends and family. Vegetarian's Pursuit Café will make it worth your time and effort.

Book Shipping Guidelines Reminder

Please help us maintain the guidelines we have put into operation over the past few months in the Book Shipping work area. If you need assistance in the shipping area, please stop at the customer service area and ask for assistance. Only Book Shipping employees are allowed to go into the pick aisles and our warehouse; others must ask permission. If you need to see a specific employee, please ask for that employee at the customer service area and wait there. Please wait until break times (10:00 a.m. to 10:10 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. to 3:10 p.m.) to have personal visits with Book Shipping employees. Just ask at the customer service area or call ahead to make arrangements to visit your friends.

No employees should exit the shipping area through the warehouse door by the breeze-way entrance without authorization. Please respect the Book Shipping work area and their work schedule. We have asked that all Review and Herald employees follow these guidelines, and we would appreciate your cooperation with these areas of concern.

Dale Tooley, Book Shipping Foreman

With Gratitude for Your Prayers

Thank you so much for your letter of December 20, 2007. We appreciate all your office family for remembering my field in your prayer. I am also a person like you to believe that "prayer brings victory," which is our section constituency theme.

I would like to tell something about my field. By God's grace we are able to achieve certain goals for the prosperity of the church. At present our membership is 1,400. We have 42 ordained ministers and soon we will have 500 congregations and three major schools. In fact, in the Southern Asia Division, our field is one of the leading mission fields.

Thank you so much for your letter of encouragement in order to work with the Holy Spirit to develop the church. We are praying for your leadership and your office, because we both belong to the same church family. My personal greetings to you.

Sincerely yours,

P. J. Jesurathnam

President

South Andhra Section of SDA, India

Flower and Garden Show

Greetings to you from the Delhi Metro Region of SDA. We sincerely thank the Review and Herald family for remembering us in your earnest prayers offered on our behalf on February 7, 2008. We do ask you to continue to remember us in your personal and corporate prayers. The Lord has blessed our ministry and the Delhi Metro Region has grown considerably in recent years.

We also do remember you and your family in our prayers.

Yours sincerely,

Pastor R. R. Bharti, Director

Delhi Metro Region of SDA, India
