Seminar for Improved Health and Nutrition

Our own Vegetarian's Pursuit Café is offering a seminar for those who want to learn more about health and nutrition. You can learn about foods that can reverse disease, lower cholesterol, increase energy, and more. Vegan and vegetarian cooking demonstrations will be included. The series will conclude with an international food fest. Classes will be held from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on the evenings of April 7, 8, and 10, and April 14, 15, and 17. The fee is $40 per person, $35 for Review and Herald employees, and covers food samples, supplies, and handouts for attendees. Register by April 4, 2008, to save your spot in this class.

Fund-raiser for Big Brothers/Big Sisters

There are just a couple of weeks before the annual bowling fund-raiser to benefit Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Washington County. This event will be held at Turner Lanes on the Dual Highway on Sunday, April 6, at 11:00 a.m.

Bowlers, sponsors, and donations of prizes are all needed. If you are interested helping in one way or another, please contact Dave Griffiths at ext. 4065.

Online University Programs Offered

Carmenza Akers, a representative from the University of Phoenix, will be at the Review and Herald on Wednesday, April 2, 2008, to talk with employees interested in continuing education opportunities through the university online. Come any time between 11:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to the Executive Dining Room, and a free lunch will be provided for those who RSVP to Ms. Akers at Carmenza.akers@phoenix.edu.

If you are considering furthering your education through a degree program, why not take a few moments to talk with Ms. Akers about what is available to you through their learning program and to get a free lunch (who says there's no such thing as a free lunch!)? University of Phoenix offers various degree programs, including A.A. degrees, bachelor's degrees, master's degrees and doctorates.

Brass and Organ Concert

Enjoy an uplifting brass and organ concert on Sabbath, March 29, at 3:30 p.m. at the Takoma Park SDA Church. A 10-piece brass choir, under the direction of David Workman, is accompanied on the organ by Dale Krider. All are welcome to attend. For more information, please call 301-518-3448.

Pride Family Presents Vespers Program

The complete family of Ron and Jeri Pride will present a Sabbath vespers program of heart-stirring praise, at 5:30 p.m. at the Hagerstown SDA Church. Witnesses of their previous performances testify to their uncommon zest and vigor for Jesus.

They have requested the privilege of making this a fund-raising concert for their Martinsburg Serenity SDA Church. Come with a happy and generous heart to help them on their way to a church of their own.

Musical Drama Program

On Sabbath, April 5, the Hagerstown SDA Church will offer a very special vespers program beginning at 5:00 p.m. "A Festival of Hymns," a musical drama, will be presented by the Parish Choir and Jubilate Handbell Ringers of the St. Anne's Episcopal Church of Damascus, Maryland, under the direction of David Loy, organist and director of music. Jermaine Cain, a young adult member of the Hagerstown Adventist Church, will assist as their student conductor and organist.

Costumed actors will present little-known facts and stories regarding the creation of many of our treasured hymns of faith in the Christian life. This dramatic program is one-of-a-kind and will increase your appreciation for our musical heritage. A reception with light refreshments will follow. Don't be shy—come and bring friends! All are welcome.

Donations Needed for Mission Trip

Crystal Prindle, student worker in Periodical Division, is planning to take part in a mission trip with the Quiet Hour this summer. A group from the Berkeley Springs SDA Church will be traveling to Honduras to help with medical, construction, and evangelistic work. Crystal is raising $1,300 to participate in this trip and would be grateful for your donation. Donations may be sent to Berkeley Springs SDA Church, c/o June Franklin, 6265 Winchester Grade Road, Berkeley Springs, WV 25411.

Fall Scrapbooking Event

At the urging of guests attending previous scrapbooking events, Mt. Aetna Camp and Retreat Center is offering another scrapbooking retreat November 14-16, 2008. We have room for plenty of scrapbookers, so plan to come and bring friends. We plan to offer a couple of classes for newer scrappers and at least one session on the intermediate photography skills, "Understanding Aperture (A), Shutter (S) and Manual (M) Camera Controls." Watch for additional information about this event in our late-summer issues. For those who really want to plan ahead, a scrapbooking retreat is on the schedule for March 20-22, 2009.

With Thanks

Nora Devore, a retired employee, would like to thank all of you for your prayers on her behalf. Some have made phone calls or sent cards, which she enjoyed and appreciates, too. Nora recently began a new series of chemo treatments and will appreciate your continued prayers. She knows that the Lord has heard each prayer and is blessing her.

“ . . . Ask God to do for you those things that you cannot do for yourselves. Tell Jesus everything. Lay open before Him the secrets of your heart; for His eye searches the inmost recesses of the soul, and He reads your thoughts as an open book. When you have asked for the things that are necessary for your soul's good, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them” (Ellen G. White, My Life Today, p. 16).

With Gratitude for Your Prayers

"Thank you so much for praying for all of us on January 3, 2008, at the Review and Herald office. We are 10 ordained pastors and 175 Bible workers (Gospel Outreach volunteers). We feel and believe that we are blessed by your prayers. And I am sure the work of God will go onward and forward; it is because you are there, at the other end of the world, praying and interceding for us.

"Thank you once again for praying for us, and give our greetings to the Review and Herald family."
