TYPELINE

Thanks for Your Prayers

“Thank you, Review and Herald family, for the beautiful flowers sent after our mother passed away. We also appreciate the many cards we received, as well as your prayers and loving concern for us.” —Gwen Bergey and Leonard Shockey and their families.

“Greetings from East Visayan Conference! I just received your letter dated May 21, 2008, telling me that the Review and Herald family is praying for me and my fellow workers at East Visayan Conference on June 16, 2008. It was on this date that we were at the height of our evangelistic crusade here in Tacloban City with Dale Galusha, president of Pacific Press Publishing Association, as our evangelist. We really appreciate your family praying for us here. Prayer provides us more power, especially in all our administrative duties. Please tell the brethren at the Review and Herald that we thank you very much for the prayers. We will also pray for the Review and Herald family. This past June 21 we had the baptism of 138 precious souls. Dale was happy to witness the reaping of those precious souls for whom Christ died.

“Thank you so much for your ministry. May the Lord God richly bless you.

“Blessings,

“Benjamin S. Mahinay, Jr.

Title: Help! I Want My Church to GrowAuthor: David Ripley

Myth or fact?

If we build a nice enough church, people will come to worship.

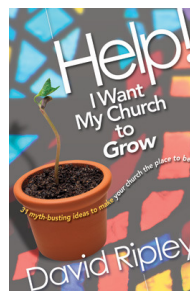

We don't need to plan for worship. It will happen naturally.

The major ministry of the church is inside the church building.

It's OK if children's Sabbath school classrooms are overcrowded.

If we can get a top-name evangelist to speak at our church, we'd see great things happen.

Myths. All myths. If you believe any of these statements are true, you aren't the only one. Many people have held to these and other common myths that stunt church growth.

In Help! I Want My Church to Grow, Pastor David Ripley exposes the 31 most widespread misconceptions that keep churches from growing into vibrant communities. Drawing from more than 20 years of pastoral experience, Ripley identifies pitfalls and offers principles that will attract people to your church.

Each section of the book includes discussion questions, making it invaluable for small group studies or leadership meetings. A must-read for church members and leaders, this book will introduce you to myth-busting ideas that will expand God's kingdom right in your very own church.

Title: Katya's GoldAuthor: Ellen Bailey

No matter how hard she tried, Katya just couldn't be good.

She wanted to stop getting into fights, but her temper always seemed to get the best of her. It didn't help that Papa punished her severely for her misbehavior. But there was one thing she was good at: skiing. She could fly on those skis! So she joined the ski club and began winning races, even beating the boys. Now she knew what she wanted in life—gold medals.

One day another skier gave her some Christian books to read. Until then, her grandmother had been the only one who ever said anything good about God. Katya's Communist teachers had taught that the Bible was a myth and that there was no God. Finally she learned the truth. When she discovered that she could not keep God's Sabbath and continue to compete, she had to make the hardest decision of her life.

Use a wet cotton ball or Q-tip to pick up the small shards of broken glass you can't see easily.

Place a dryer sheet in your pocket. It will keep the mosquitoes away.

To keep squirrels from eating your plants, sprinkle your plants with cayenne pepper. The cayenne pepper doesn't hurt the plant, and the squirrels won't come near it.

To get something out of a heat register or under the fridge, add an empty paper towel roll or empty gift wrap roll to your vacuum. It can be bent or flattened to get in narrow openings.

Pin a small safety pin to the seam of your slip, and you will not have a clingy skirt or dress. This also works with slacks that cling when wearing panty hose. Place pin in seam of slacks and ... TA DA! ... static is gone.

Before you pour sticky substances into a measuring cup, fill with hot water. Dump out the hot water, but don't dry cup. Next, add your ingredient, such as peanut butter, and watch how easily it comes right out.

Hate foggy windshields? Buy a chalkboard eraser and keep it in the glove box of your car. When the windows fog, rub with the eraser! Works better than a cloth!
