Come for a Fun Run!

Come out this Sunday, October 5, to participate in the Vibrant Life 5K Fun Run and Walk on the Review and Herald campus. This will be the tenth race of its kind. If you are interested in participating in the race, please contact Linda Starkey at ext. 4019. Race registration forms are located in the lobby and at other key locations throughout the house. Or, you may register online at: <http://www.VibrantLife.com>. The registration fee is $15 per person.

Those who are not participating by running or walking in the race could help as a volunteer on race day. People are needed to help with the registration booth and at checkpoints, fill water jugs and/or give out cups of water, tear pull tags off the race numbers, blow up balloons, etc. Call Linda if you are able to help in any capacity, please. We look forward to a great race this year! Race begins at 9:30 a.m., but registration begins at 9:00 a.m. Register now online at www.VibrantLife.com or fill out a registration form here at work and send it to the Vibrant Life office. Ten percent of the registration fees will go to support the Susan G. Komen for the Cure Maryland, helping to fight breast cancer.

Free Breast Cancer Screening Clinic

A free breast cancer screening clinic will be held here at the Review and Herald on Thursday, October 16, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. This event is sponsored by Vibrant Life magazine and by the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure, Maryland Affiliate. To sign up for a screening appointment or for more information, please contact Linda Starkey at ext. 4019 or visit the Susan G. Komen booth on October 5 at the 5K Fun Run/Walk.

With Thanks

Thank you to all who helped make our bookstore reopening a success. Employees spent more than $2,300 in the store during the week. Glen Swan won the drawing for the three-volume Encyclopedia of Foods and their Healing Power. Idania Torres won the drawing for a case of Big Franks.

Buster Jackson, Information Systems Services, and the Russell Lee family would like to thank you for your cards, flowers, and expressions of sympathy on Russell's recent passing. They appreciate your Christian love and concern during this difficult time.

Mission Committee Yard Sale

Mission Committee announces its seventh annual yard sale, to be held November 3 to 20, 2008, in the breezeway. Proceeds help to fund various projects such as Christmas items for needy families. We encourage employees to bring items for the yard sale to Ed Crumbly in the pressroom. Items must be in good, usable condition, but please, no clothing. Tables will be available for rent if you want to sell your own items.

Pam and Jimmy Rhodes in Concert

Hagerstown SDA Church invites you to attend a vespers concert on Sabbath, October 4, at 6:00 p.m. Pam and Jimmy Rhodes, popular SafeTV artists and winners of the prestigious Angel Award, present this early-evening concert. Vocalist Pam is accompanied by her husband, Jimmy, who delights the audience with his skill while playing piano, organ, trombone, and pocket trumpet. All nine of their popular recordings will be available for purchase following their concert at 11507 Robinwood Drive in Hagerstown. For additional information, call 301-733-4411.

Raising Funds With Crop Hunger Walk

Steve Whitesides is participating with Hagerstown SDA Church in an annual Crop Hunger Walk at the Hagerstown Fairgrounds on October 12. This event raises money through sponsorships to help fight hunger in countries where people are starving. Funds raised will be used for small projects such as these: $150 can buy 100 chicks and two wire chicken coops, providing two families with a source of eggs and income; $500 can provide small start-up loans that enable women to jump-start a business, such as making school uniforms; $1,000 buys a well pump and hygiene training for a village that can assure a source of water and improved community health. If you are interested in sponsoring Steve with a donation, please call him at ext. 3080. Donations must be made before October 12.

Pathfinders Hold Fall Festival

The Willow Brook Pathfinders will hold their second annual Fall Festival at the Mt. Aetna Camp and Retreat Center the weekend of October 18 and 19.

Come and get in on the fun! You can carve a pumpkin, take a hayride, visit a pet farm, enjoy wonderful food, and much more! There is no fee for admission. Tickets will be required for certain events and will be sold at the festival. Funds raised will help the Pathfinders attend the 2009 International Courage to Stand Camporee in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. Hours are on Saturday evening, October 18, 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and on Sunday afternoon, October 19, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Yard Sale and Mini Fair

Come to a Community Yard Sale and Mini Fair at Highland View SDA Church on Sunday, October 26, from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. In an effort to continue raising funds for the HIV/AIDS orphans in Kenya, we'll be selling all manner of items, including fresh-baked goods, furniture, and yard sale treasures! The cost is $10 to rent a space/lot to sell the summer clothes your children have outgrown, and those tools and trinkets that have been collecting dust in your garage! We'll be reserving spaces/lots through October 19. In addition, six- and eight-foot tables are available to rent the day of the sale for an additional $10 to display your items. Bring the whole family and enjoy the day! The church is located at 21600 Academy Terrace, Hagerstown, Maryland 21740. For more info, please contact LouAnn McCain at 301-797-3868 or 240-217-5249, or Lynne Corea at 240-527-3074.

Flu Vaccinations Available

Flu vaccinations will be administered at the Review and Herald on Monday, October 27, from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and Wednesday, October 29, from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Please contact Human Resources to get scheduled for your vaccination.

Thank You for Your Prayers

“Greetings from the Southern Luzon Mission family! Please know that we were so glad to be included in your prayers specifically on August 14. Thank you so much. God bless your hands as you continue touching people’s lives.

“Sincerely,
“Nestor D. Dayson, president
“Southern Luzon Mission”

“We praise God for the existence of our Review and Herald Publishing Association for more than a century now.

“With gratitude, I am deeply impressed by your kindness by remembering me in your circle of prayer in the Review and Herald family on June 19. I thank you so much for making me a part of your list. Coincidentally, the following, June 20, was my 58th birthday.

“Certainly we are glad to be a part of God’s organized work—worldwide, where everyone has the opportunity to serve our Creator in various assignments of responsibility.

“Our mission field is just 11 years new. Our baptized membership four years ago was only 6,500, but because of the community service that we have rendered to both rural and urban areas through healthy lifestyle programs and medical-dental missions, people are just so receptive to the gospel message. Church membership is now growing to 11,052, and churches are increasing in numbers.

“Please pray continually for Negros Oriental-Siquijor Mission, under the territory of Central Philippine Union Conference, as we plan to establish a secondary school by 2010 and a mission college on the island of Siquijor that will specifically train more laymen as front-liners to work hand in hand with our literature evangelists in the field. We really want to speed up the work of our Master, knowing that Jesus is coming very, very soon.

“God bless your beloved family. More power to your administrative work.
“In His service,
“Joel T. Requillo, president
“Negros Oriental-Siquijor Mission
“Central Philippine Union Conference”

“Thank you for praying for me and my staff in Singapore Mission. We are much encouraged by the support through prayers on September 17, 2008, for all of us.

“Do remember our upcoming evangelistic meetings by Elder Mark Finley, to be held April 22 through May 2, 2009.

“God bless!
“In Christian service,
“Danson Ng, president
“Singapore Mission”
