TYPELINE

Safety Program Benefits Available

Purchase a bike helmet or take a safety course and receive up to $25. Independence Blue Cross is working with the American Red Cross, the American Heart Association, and the American Safety and Health Institute to promote safety. Employees may visit 222.ibxpress.com for details on the reimbursement programs offered. Other health information is also available at this site. We're sure you'll want to check it out.

Full Reimbursement for Some Prescriptions

We want to remind you to check with your doctor or pharmacy to see if any of the prescriptions you are currently taking are or could be the general 30-days-for $4 or 90-days-for-$10 medicines that are offered by Wal-Mart, Sam's Club, Target, and other pharmacies. If you are covered under our medical plan and are using these medications, the Review will reimburse you for the entire cost of these prescriptions. Check it out—it could save you some money. Contact Human Resources for additional information or with any questions.

Need a Leash?

If you purchased a pedometer during or shortly after the Benefits/Health Fair and have not received a safety leash for your pe-dometer and would like to have one, please contact Human Resources to receive a complimentary leash.

Discount Shopping at Prime Outlets

Prime Outlets hosts its annual Corporate Days from June 6 to 21, 2009. During these two weeks, all area businesses and employees are invited to come in for special shopping discounts. Any employee who shows an ID badge or paystub at Guest Services

You Don't Need All That Stuff!

Let's get real here. Stuff will only weigh you down. And you can get it carted away FOR FREE and it will benefit some of the world's greatest youth, the Willow Brook Pathfinders. What could be more perfect? Clean out every corner of your home, and everything you can live without, and we'll sell it at the Willow Brook yard sale on Friday, June 26, and Sunday, June 28. Bring small items to the Willow Brook SDA Church and store them in the new cabinets in the back corner of Paden Hall. Please bring your small items to the church after Tuesday, June 10. For larger items or a full load call the church office at 301-797-8808 for a pickup appointment. You'll feel lighter and your life will be less complicated. And you'll do less dusting!

Williamsport Church Offers Early Service

Williamsport SDA Church has added an early service to its Sabbath programming. Both services will be as identical as possible to each other. The first service begins at 8:15 a.m. and will be followed by Sabbath School at 9:30 a.m. (with a song service ending at 9:30 a.m.) The second service will begin at 10:50 a.m. The church is located at 16421 Lappans Road, Williamsport, Maryland. Phone number is 301-223-8125. We warmly welcome all who wish to join us for either service.

Help Teenagers Battle Cancer

Route 40 Cruisers for Kids presents a fundraiser event that will benefit two teenagers who are battling Ewing's sarcoma bone cancer. Katie Stains, age 17, and Josh Forsythe, age 14, are both from Williamsport, Maryland.

The cruise-in will be held on Sunday, June 14, 2009, from noon to 5:00 p.m. at the Washington County Agricultural Center, on Sharps-burg Pike, five miles south of Hagerstown, Maryland. Admission is a $5 donation per vehicle, not per person. Please have your donation ready at the gate.

Please, no pets and no alcohol. Contacts: Chris and Stacey at 240-291-7374 or Anne and Gil at 301-582-4109.

Radio Program for Homeschoolers

The Homeschool Companion offers great programs for June, including a special Father's Day program to air on June 10, 2009. Please consider sending in a tribute for your father. Simply e-mail your tribute to HSC@rhpa.org by June 9, 2009. This will give you an opportunity to download the show and present the recording to your father by Father's Day.

We had an interesting debate May 25, 2009, on the topic of whether moms should work out of the home. If you didn't get a chance to listen to it, you may go to www.myhomeschooler.com and click on the Homeschool Companion radio show link on the left and listen or download it. We will debate the topic of homeschooling and socialization on June 24, 2009.

Sweeten Summer with Cool, Refreshing Smoothies

Warm summer days call for the perfect frosty refreshment. Try homemade fruit smoothies—sweetened naturally with pure honey. Here are some easy tips:

- ◆ Add variety: Experiment with different combinations of fresh fruits. Try melons, berries and tropical fruits such as mangoes, bananas and pineapple.
- ◆ Make it thick: Add a few more ice cubes for a creamier mix.
- ◆ Keep it cold: Instead of using fresh fruits, use frozen fruit for a colder and thicker beverage. You can buy frozen fruit or freeze your own.
- ◆ On the go: Make smoothies ahead of time and store in the freezer.
- ◆ Prevent sticky situations: Add honey and any additional liquids to the blender first to prevent it from binding up on the frozen fruit and getting stuck.

Try this simple smoothie recipe from the National Honey Board. For more recipes and additional honey tips and information, visit www.honey.com.

Strawberry Kiwi Smoothie

Makes 2 servings.

Ingredients:

- 1 1/2 cups fresh or frozen strawberries
- 1 large kiwi, peeled
- 1 container (8 ounces) low-fat vanilla yogurt
- 1/4 cup honey
- 12 to 15 ice cubes

Directions:

In a blender or food processor, combine all ingredients and process until smooth. Serve immediately.—Courtesy ARAcontent.

Title: Mary: Call Me Blessed

Author: Patty Froese Ntihemuka

A baby changes everything. Especially when that baby is the Messiah. Nobody believed Mary. Nobody.

She claimed that the baby she carried was God's son. Her outraged family quite naturally assumed that the father was her betrothed, Joseph. He, on the other hand, was devastated by the thought of his beloved with another man. And it didn't actually matter to the villagers who the father was—this juicy morsel of gossip was viciously satisfying.

Nobody in Nazareth cared that their ancient Jewish prophecies foretold the Messiah's virgin birth. An unwed mother was, well, an unwed mother. And they didn't trust her blasphemous tale. That self-righteous girl would invent an outrageous story to disguise her sin. Never mind their own sins, she was guilty. She deserved to die.

Ah yes, Mary's unborn child changed everything.

Title: Majesty

Author: S. Joseph Kidder

Worship is an encounter with God—a life-changing experience. How long ago was your last life-changing experience? This morning? Last week? Can't remember?

In these pages are scriptural principles to guide you into a genuine worship experience. Of course you know whom to worship, but what about why, how, and when? And what does the Bible have to say about the significance of worship in a Christian life?

Discover the simple yet profound answers that will transform your soul and leave you hungry for God's presence.
